Who can you send a thank you card to?

- The Thank a Teacher campaign recognises ALL staff working in UK schools and colleges; school leaders, teachers, teaching assistants, pastoral and inclusion team, and all support staff such as office staff, lunchtime supervisors, caretakers and cleaners. If you're feeling shy you can send a card anonymously!
- You can send as many cards as you want and they are absolutely free!

Go to www.thankateacher.co.uk

The screenshot shows the homepage of the National Thank a Teacher Day website. At the top left is a logo with the words 'Thank a Teacher' in a colorful grid. To its right is a navigation menu with links: 'National Thank A Teacher Day', 'Parents', 'Schools', 'MATs', 'Resources', 'Heat Map', and 'More'. On the top right, there are two buttons: a pink 'Send card' button with an envelope icon and a dark blue 'Track e-card' button with a right-pointing arrow icon. A red arrow points from the text 'Click on the pink button "Send card"' to the 'Send card' button. The main banner features a black background with a photo of a person on the left. The text on the banner reads: 'National Thank a Teacher Day is on Wednesday 17th June 2026'. Below this, it says: 'Thank you for celebrating every member of the school community with us on National Thank a Teacher Day.' At the bottom of the page, there is a light blue section with a paragraph: 'National Thank a Teacher Day is an annual celebration of teachers and support staff across early years settings, schools and colleges. This year, over 100,000 Thank a Teacher Day personalised e-cards were sent.' Below this paragraph is a pink button that says 'Register your interest for 2026'.

The screenshot shows the 'Send a Thank You' form on a website. At the top, there is a navigation bar with a logo and links: 'National Thank A Teacher Day', 'The 'Unsung Hero' Award', 'Thank You Heat Map', and 'More'. There are also 'Log in', 'Send card', and 'Track card' buttons. The main heading is 'Send a Thank You' with the subtext 'Use the form below to send a Thank You message.' The form itself has a light blue header with the title 'Send a Thank You' and a paragraph explaining the campaign. Below this is a text input field labeled 'Enter your message *' with a hint: 'Don't forget to include your thank you message - this can be as long or as short as you like! Your teacher will be able to read what you have written.' Underneath the input field is a question: 'Would you like your Thank You to be sent on National Thank a Teacher day? *' with the note 'National Thank a Teacher day is Wednesday 19th June.' There are two radio button options: 'Yes, send on Thank a Teacher day!' and 'No, send as soon as possible'. At the bottom right of the form is a pink 'Next' button. Three red arrows are overlaid on the image: one points from the text 'Enter your message and add your name if you want to.' to the message input field; another points from the text 'Click whether you want to send it on National Thank a Teacher Day or as soon as possible (this is up to you).' to the radio button options; and a third points from the text 'Then, click the pink "Next" button.' to the 'Next' button.
